

APPOMATTOX WOMEN MEET

W. G. T. U. and Missionary Societies Gather and Listen to Many Addresses.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
APPOMATTOX, VA., September 16.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union and all missionary societies of all denominations met by special invitation at the country home of Mrs. R. C. Wagner yesterday. The missionary societies met with Mrs. Mary Taylor presiding. At 1 o'clock a picnic dinner was served.

At 3 o'clock the Woman's Christian Temperance Union convened with Mrs. Wagner presiding. A letter from Mrs. Herbert Allen, of Dayton, was read by Mrs. W. G. Geissen. A paper on "World-Wide Co-operation Between the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and Missionary Societies," was read by Mrs. A. C. Hildesoe. A paper on "Mission" was read by Mrs. William P. Gills. Others who read papers were: Mrs. Forsythe, "Purity"; Mrs. H. C. Babcock, "Mothers' Department"; Mrs. C. W. McElroy, "Model Contest"; Miss Nannie Foster and Miss Godwin, "Scientific Education in Schools"; Miss E. V. Hardy, "Loyal Temperance Legion," and Miss Margaret Atkinson, "Gymnasium and Athletics." Mrs. W. A. Rorer, of Lynchburg, discussed ways to help the liquor dealers find other employment.

Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. C. W. Hunter, Mrs. R. L. Wingfield, Mrs. J. H. Stanley, Mrs. Rorer and Mrs. George Walton led the discussion on "The Relations Between the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and Missions."

A pool-room committee was selected as follows: Mrs. L. E. Smith, Mrs. W. G. Geissen, Mrs. T. W. Moses, Mrs. S. L. Ferguson. The new dinner committee consists of Mrs. M. C. Smith, Mrs. N. J. Mann, Mrs. Geissen, Miss Kate O'Connor, Mrs. Robert Iby, Mrs. C. W. Hunter, Mrs. A. C. Hildesoe, Mrs. Forsythe, Mrs. C. W. McElroy, Mrs. S. L. Ferguson, Mrs. T. W. Moses, Mrs. W. B. Caldwell, Mrs. William Pitzer Gills.
